Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is an easy food—it is more than food, if you please;

it is a food—to bring back plumpness to those who have lost it.

Do you know what it is to be plump?

Thinness is poverty, living in hand to mouth. To be plump is to have a little more than enough, a reserve.

Do you want a reserve of wealth? Let us send you a book on CAREFUL LIVING;

Wright & Bowes, Chemists, 132 South 5th Avenue, New York. Our drugs keep Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil in every store.

Dan Daly's Funeral.

General of Daniel P. Field, the pupil and son, took place yesterday afternoon from his deathbed, 1518 Cass Avenue. Services were held at the First Methodist Church and the burial place in Calvary Cemetery.

box-stroke.

Peace on Earth.

His Death Occurred Suddenly Early This Morning.

Manager W. H. Smith, of the Standard

Theater, died suddenly this morning at 5 o'clock in his room in the Standard

Theater. Mr. Smith last night was in his office down stairs laughing and chatting with his friends as usual, and showed no unusual symptoms of ill health.

He had been ill for some time, and had been under medical treatment.

He was confined to his bed, and still being cared for by insanity experts.

Those persons who have made the statement that Edward M. Field is not insane would change their opinion at once if they could see the unfortunate man. It would make their hearts bleed if they could see him sometimes.

He is an old and dear friend of mine, as well as a patient, and it almost brings me to tears to see him in his deplorable condition.

If he were only aware of some of the unpleasant things that are being said about him I know he would go raving crazy.

It is a mystery to me how Mr. Field, during the last three months, handled the extensive business of his firm with such skill, but it appears that his insanity made him all the more shrewd.

Cyrus W. Field, Jr., who was seen by a reporter of People's Theater and being connected with the old

Comique Theater on St. Louis Avenue, reported that his son had a conference at the Field house on Sunday. His father was too ill on Sunday, he said, to take part in any business transactions, and he did not leave his bed during the entire day.

"My father is confined to his bed, my sister is in the same house seriously ill, my brother is out of his head and my mother just been laid away in the grave. Surely our misfortunes are sufficient for one family and I cannot understand why some people try to make capital out of our misfortune.

Managed by his wife, he has been running the Standard Theater ever since it was built in 1883; previous to that he was managing the Standard Theater and before that he was managing the Standard.

He is perfectly willing to aid him in every possible way, and have no doubt he will do so as he is well enough to attend to such matters. Simply because Mr. Morgan

WEATHER FORECAST FOR TWENTY-FOUR HOURS, BEGINNING AT 8 A. M. TO-DAY, FOR MISSOURI: Showers in western portion, probably extending over eastern portion Wednesday morning;
generally warmer; southerly winds, increasing in force.

The area of high pressure is now located on the South Atlantic coast, while the greatest depression is in the Northwest. Southerly winds with warmer weather prevail from the Rocky Mountains eastward. Cloudless weather continues from Missouri eastward, while west of Missouri cloudiness is increasing.

Weather forecast for St. Louis for twenty-four hours ending noon, Wednesday: Fair to-day; increasing cloudiness with local showers, especially in Northeast Missouri; tomorrow, warmer, southerly winds, increasing in force.

A VERY LITTLE DISPATCH FROM BERLIN SAYS THAT THE PUBLICATION OF THE IMPERIAL RESCRIPT WITHOUT THE SIGNATURE OF MINISTERS HAS BEEN CRITICIZED BY LIBERAL MEMBERS OF THE REICHSTAG. THIS IS NOT THE FIRST IN-

sance of this kind of arrogance of which the Emperor has been guilty. It is not known, however, whether it comes from ignorance of the law or contempt for it.

WHAT CONGRESS MAY DO.

The most important feature of the argument which the Supreme Court is now hearing on the constitutionality of the sugar bounty, is the official declaration of the administration that a protective tariff tax is a bounty collected from the people to benefit the protected manufacturer or producer.

The Solicitor-General in his brief contends that the sugar duties have always had the effect of a bounty to domestic sugar producers, as well as a revenue effect, and that while Congress could surrender the revenue derived from those duties, it could not deprive the sugar producers of the bounty without destroying a vested right upon which depended the entire value of fifty or sixty millions worth of sugar plantation investments.

The complete argument of the Solicitor-General, representing the constitutional views of the Administration and the Republican party, is that the power to lay taxes for public purposes is extended by the general welfare clause, so as to include the promotion of private enterprises by bounties or subsidies. If Congress thinks a public purpose will be subserved by levying a tax to make the masses poorer and certain rich men richer, Congress is authorized by the Constitution to levy that tax, and may levy it so that it will yield no revenue and operate only as an indirect bounty, or may pay the bounty directly to individuals out of the proceeds of other revenue taxes.

According to this official theory every tax levied and every appropriation voted by Congress is to promote the general welfare, and is the exercise of a discretion which cannot be questioned by the Supreme Court. Any Congress may levy taxes for the benefit of unprofitable enterprises or lavish bounties upon them, whenever they can elect a majority of Congressmen to demand such gifts for them, and the beneficiaries of such aids acquire a vested right to them. Whether these bounties shall be paid to manufacturers in cities, to the owners of unprofitable sugar plantations, fruit farms, grain farms or stock ranches, is simply a question of which is strong enough to reach out and get the money, and the payment must be continued as a vested right so long as the receivers are unable to prosper without it.

If the will of the majority is the only bar to the collection of taxes and the appropriation of the proceeds, our Federal Government is the most omnipotent engine yet devised by the wit of man for the prosecution of social experiments. If it can take the money of the poor and give it to the rich, it can of course, when the tables are turned, take the money of the rich and give it to the poor.

THESE ARE NO BETTER WAY OF INSTILLING HUMANITARIAN PRINCIPLES INTO THE MINDS OF OTHERS THAN BY THE FORCE OF EXAMPLE. AN OPPORTUNITY TO GIVE THE RUSSIAN CZAR AN EXCELLENT LESSON ON THE SUBJECT OF THE UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD OF MAN IS PRESENTED IN THE FACT THAT WE HAVE MILLIONS OF BUSHELS OF SURPLUS GRAIN AND HE HAS MILLIONS OF STARVING SUBJECTS WHOM THE RESOURCES OF HIS EMPIRE CANNOT FURNISH WITH FOOD. AMERICANS HAVE SHOWN A DEEP INTEREST IN THE CONDITION OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE, WHO HAVE IN TURN PROVED THEIR FRIENDLINESS TO US IN MANY WAYS. THERE WOULD BE A HAPPY APPROPRIATENESS IN AMERICA LEADING A MOVEMENT TO EXTEND GENEROUS AIDS TO THE STARVING RUSSIANS. IT WOULD STRENGTHEN HER INFLUENCE IN BEHALF OF THE OPPRESSED SIBERIAN EXILES.

THEN, IT WAS BUILT WITH FULL FIVE THOUSAND BOYS AND GIRLS DRESSED IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE, WEARING SAPPHIRE RIBBONS, OR INSTITUTION CARRYING ITS DISTINCTIVE BANNER AND EVERLASTING FLAME, THE LITTLE CHILDREN OF EACH PARISH OF THE CHILDREN'S JUBILEE, THE SCENE WAS ONE OF BEAUTY AND ANIMATION. THE STATE DEFIED.

From 1500 Miners Will Resist the Return of the Convicts.
Gov. BUCHANAN ENLISTING MEN TO GUARD THE STOCKADES.

Renewal of Hostilities Expected When the Prisoners Are Again Set to Work—Negroes Driven Out by the Whites—Bloodshed a Certainty—Railroad Strike Probable in Texas—Labor News.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 1.—If all signs do not deceive us, when the day comes when the negro convicts who have been detained will be returned to the mines in this county will meet with a warm reception. Not only do the mountaineers oppose the return of the convicts, but they have begun a war on the free negroes now in the district.

Information has just reached here of a renewal of the reign of terror which swept over Oliver Springs a few weeks ago. It began last Friday night when some of the white miners, armed with rifles, shot their way into the negro miners' houses where the negro miners were living. It will be remembered that when the convicts were turned loose the Cumberland Mining Co., through Capt. John C. Smith, president, announced it was to allow free labor immediately and every miner, white or colored, who could be had was put to work. Things moved peacefully until Friday, when the white miners determined to make off with the negroes. They attacked the houses, firing hundreds of shots, and gave the negroes notice that if they did not leave within twenty-four hours all would be killed. A number of negroes, however, more than half, called on the President of the company for protection. He secured the names of ten of the leaders of the mob and took out warrants for their arrest.

The men fled to the mountains, though the company sent men in capturing two. Their trials were postponed and Saturday all the white miners struck because their demand that the warrants against the ten men be dismissed was rejected. The miners are now threatening to strike again.

John C. Smith, president of the company said that there was more than enough work for both colored and white men.

He says the men were kept separate and that there was no occasion for the attack on the colored miners. Further, he says he had work for at least 100 men more than he could get.

His company is much chagrined at the act of the miners, who, he says, had no intention to have anything more to do with convicts. It is now probable that convicts will be taken.

The men whose names the company gave to the authorities were, more or less, leaders of the mob.

There was a meeting to-day in the Governor's office at Nashville regarding the convict trouble. Both the Governor and the Secretary of State, the Comptroller, Superintendent of Prisons and Warden were present. The status of affairs was discussed and the Superintendent authorized to employ men at Oliver Springs and mine guard duty for guard duty, could that many be secured. Nothing was done in regard to Oliver Springs, but the same number probably will be allowed there. It is probable, however, that it is to be done. In order to create a sufficient guard of at least seventy-five men at each stockade, as soon as the stockades are finished, the recaptured convicts will be marched into them against whatever opposition may be offered. The capture has already cost the state $9,665.11.

The news of Gov. Buchanan's resolve to return the convicts to the Briceville region has just reached the miners. Meetings are being held and a plan of action will be agreed upon.

It is stated in dispatches from Nashville that a body of men will be enlisted as miners and the special service will be given the convicts. John C. Smith, who will return to the mines is not stated, but it will not be long delayed. Of one thing, however, there is no doubt. The miners will not submit to the re-enactment of the old order without a struggle to prevent it.

They are not likely to divulge their plans, but will not be deterred from carrying them out by the presence of a few militiamen.

WILL DEMAND A REDUCTION.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The employers have given notice to the Welsh miners that their present contracts will cease at the end of this month, and it work is to be suspended, but that, due to a general reduction in wages will have to take place. They have asked the miners to appoint a conference committee to see if some arrangement can not be made whereby the miners may be employed during the coming year. The matter is a serious one, as 10,000 miners are affected by the notice, and should go to work on a new contract for the winter. It was gloomy, not alone among the miners but by the employers in Wales.

THREATENED RAILROAD STRIKE.

Houston, Tex., Dec. 1.—It looks as though a strike would be declared on the Southern Pacific system, which will involve a large number of men. The employees demand an increase in wages and a number of conferences have been held with representatives of the railroads to some agreement, but nothing has been accomplished. The Grievance Committee and Conductor Clark and C. H. Atkinson, president of the Texas Central, held another conference with high officials of the railway company yesterday but could not agree. Another meeting will be held to-day.

At the conclusion the Archbishops stood up and addressed the audience, the prediction and blessed the vast audience of kneeling children. The 5,000 youngsters who had gathered in the hall were then left the hall. Sergeant Lyons and a squad of twelve policemen assisted the sisters in emptying the hall, which was vacated in a few moments.

ADDRESSES OF THE PRELATES.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S RESPONSE TO CONGRATULATIONS TENDERED HIM.

At the banquet in honor of the Archbishop yesterday, in addition to the welcoming address by Vicar-General Brady and the addresses made by Cardinal Gibbons and the Deacons of the church which appeared in the Post-Dispatch, the Archbishop Kenrick made (somewhat unexpectedly) a few remarks; and addresses were made by Archbishop Corrigan and Bishop Janssen and others.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Archbishop Kenrick spoke, moved by Vicar General Brady's welcoming speech.

To the great surprise of the guests he arose and said:

"I have to assure you that nothing but the request of His Eminence of Baltimore could induce me to address you in preference to the other clerical guests, as I may have to say must not be taken as a reply, or as a response, rather, to the question, 'What do you think of us?'"

He then spoke at length of the deep reverence which we have for the sacred office, and which we consider of infinite importance.

And we are concerned that we must not forget that we have for the sacred office, and which we consider of infinite importance.

And we are concerned that we must not forget that we have for the sacred office,

THE McKinLEY ACT.

Questions By the Bench Indicating Opposition to Plaintiff.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The questions with which the Justices of the Supreme Court interrupted counsel who were arguing the unconstitutionality of the McKinley bill concerned the action of the court to the position assumed by Counselor Wickham Smith (see page 1). Inquired whether there was any proof in the record that his clients had paid out any money to the super-borough clause of which they complained. Justice Gray, in his equal significance, inquired whether the act was unconstitutional because of this bounty clause. Justice Bradley said he had no objection in respect to the accidental omission of the tobacco rebate clause. "Your Honor," he said, "is it not true that a rolling clerk, by accident or by fraud, omits a section of a law? I would like to have the term taken off the word and signed as if it was valid?" When Bill replied in the affirmative, it was evident that Justice Bradley did not agree with him.

ATTRACtIONS NEW AND OLD FOR THE PLAYGOERS OF ST. LOUIS.

The Casino's New Musical Comedy—Frank Mayo Presents a New Type of Stage Villain—Clara Morris in "Odette"—Eddy Gaynor's Latest Fun-Maker—Other Attractions and Coming Events.

A large audience witnessed the first production in this country at the Grand Opera House last evening of the musical comedy, "Uncle Celestin," by the Aronson Co. The work has been fully described in the Post-Dispatch. The piece is subtitled with the words, "an evening of fun." It must have enjoyed a long run in Paris. It has lost some quality of entertainment in translation, but the Parisians are more easily pleased than the Americans, for it is impossible to predicate a long run for it here as it was presented last night.

The production was undoubtedly lacking in bright and varied points of successful entertainment after its kind, yet it is difficult to

Legitimate Merchandising Vs. Fake Fire and Bankrupt Sales

We give to our patrons at all times the Very Best Goods for the least money, in unlimited quantities. Plenty of and for all, without preferences.

We do not and will not use any deception to sell our Cloaks. We quote our prices and guarantee to show you what we advertise in sufficient quantities to meet all demands, and trust to an intelligent public to judge us only on our merits.

Legitimate Merchandising Has Always Been and Shall Remain the Principle of This Concern.

WE NEVER ADVERTISE Bankrupt, Fire or Auction Cloaks.
WE NEVER SPRING a BOGUS FIRE SALE on the public, where they close the doors every few minutes, so as to enable the clerks to SPRINKLE MORE STOCK TO GULL THE PUBLIC.

We do not tell you that we shall sweep out two million dollars' worth of fine Diamonds at 10c on the dollar to make room for Christmas Candies.

Nor do we ask you to believe that during the dreadful fire that swept away our entire establishment a careless fireman named O. What A. Lyre accidentally stepped on a hose. The pressure of water being so great, it burst, and, strange to relate, it squirted into a large Manufacturing Cloak Concern in New York City and wet "Six Million" Dollars' worth of CLOAKS, which we have telegraphed for, and they will be here by EXPRESS, as it is so much cheaper than FREIGHT, and which we intend to sell at 4c on the dollar.

The above is a sample of what you are asked to believe.

No baits or other devices to mislead the unwary, but a Low Price that will bear inspection and comparison with any house in America.

We do not and will not use any deception to sell our Cloaks. We quote our prices and guarantee to show you what we advertise in sufficient quantities to meet all demands, and trust to an intelligent public to judge us only on our merits.

Another Handsome Bridge. President George Burnet to-day made a thorough examination of the plans submitted by Engineer Carl Gayler for the Twelfth street bridge. He approved them and so will the Board of Public Improvements when they are presented to the commissioners. The cost will cost nearly as much as the Grand Avenue bridge, which represents $60,000 and is a trestle bridge, and will cost something like $100,000. The new bridge will be a cantilever, and is the first one of that kind that will ever be built in St. Louis. If Engineer Gayler has anything to do with the construction, the cantilevers will be all the rage, he says in a depreciatory way, "and we got enough of a bad name for that."

ROSE COGHLAN'S NEW COMEDY. Sunday evening Rose Coghlan will begin a week's engagement at the Olympic Theater, preparing for the first of her new comedies, "The Girl in the Mirror," which appears to have made a great success. Miss Coghlan is a talented actress, some of whom have made distinct successes in St. Louis. They are John Sullivan, John S. Marble, Edward Parker, Helen Russell, Beatrice Moreland and Adele Palmer. The critics say that she is as satisfactory to Miss Coghlan that she has determined to appear in nothing else this season, having laid aside her extensive repertoire of plays.

analyze its weakness. Some of it doubtless was due to first night nervousness and the anxiety to have the performance go through without break, which prevented the bringing out of the best and most humorous portions of the comedy. There are opportunities for fun of a rattling farcical kind. The plot is sufficient and some amusing incidents and complications arise from it, but there is a failure to develop the humor in the characters or situations. Here and there it was done with good effect. The scenes are well drawn and the work was that of a combination of creative motion and grotesqueness of character without much variety of amusement. However, the first and second acts which were brought out by subsequent performances may be exercised with good effect.

The performance may be put down as exceptionally smooth and spirited for a night's work. The company was excellently composed of the Casino road organization which was sent out for the season, and the Casino road company's comic comedy successes were scored, the work was done with fair smoothness and dash. The Casino road company's manager, however, but Miss Nevers as Clementine was pleasing. Jennie Reifferty, Jefferson Angels, Harry Miller, Fred Foy, John J. Johnson, Eddie and Villa Knox deserve credit for capable efforts. The production was staged in an acceptable manner, including J. M. Givings, W. C. Kelley, Howard Coveney, Milian Whitt and others.

Bobby is the attractions at Popes's this week in "Odette," last night a creation of grisly scorn and defiance, and in expressing the varying shades of these emotions Clara Morris and Gaynor are superb. The former is a生力军, always held and thrilled her audience. She is supported by practical comedy company, including J. M. Givings, W. C. Kelley, Howard Coveney, Milian Whitt and others.

THE HAGAN—FRANK MAYO. Frank Mayo at the Hagan Opera House this week is playing a number of parts of which his wife, under the title of "The Athlete," takes the part of Geoffrey Delamain and portrays a brutal young English aristocrat of sporting tastes and criminal instincts in a way that puts a new and repellent type of villain on the stage. The play presents all the scenes of the story in a new and in the last act especially, where Hester Dethridge, the Muriel and Manie are introduced, the entire scene is a picture of the house. The extravaganzas of the company, and the ruffians of the cast, are the chief attraction.

THE AUSTRIAN JUVENILE HAND. The Austrian Juvenile Band makes its first appearance in this city this Friday evening at the Olympia. Two other concertos are to follow on Saturday, matinees and evening. The Austrian Juvenile Band is a unique and original musical circle. The demonstration whatever was made over their program, but upon their first appearance, however, there were four concerts in all. The fourth concert drew a large audience and was more successful than the first and second concert together. A return visit that it is sure will fill all the houses in the city, the critics say that the band plays with wonderful vitality, spirit and animal nature. The scope of the program is somewhat limited, but the music of other good people in a way to keep the audience in a steady interest. Regular Wednesday evenings.

POPE'S—"SHODDEN ALLEGORY." The emotional music of Clara Morris at Pope's this week in "Odette," last night a creation of grisly scorn and defiance, and in expressing the varying shades of these emotions Clara Morris and Gaynor are superb. The former is a生力军, always held and thrilled her audience. She is supported by practical comedy company, including J. M. Givings, W. C. Kelley, Howard Coveney, Milian Whitt and others.

HAVALIN'S—"WAIFS OF NEW YORK." Havalin's Kate Edmunds appears in the "Waifs of New York," wife, under the title of "The Athlete." The star takes the part of Geoffrey Delamain and portrays a brutal young Occasional.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

Fostering the Hatred of Guatemala—The Coffee Crop.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 1.—It is stated that soon following the arrival of the State of Chiapas, will appoint to office, in a majority of cases, men known to be hostile to Guatemala. This is significant in view of Guatemalan rumors that the people of Chiapas and the Guatemalans are bitter enemies.

Bandits are committing numerous depredations in the country, connecting Saltillo and Jaral has been commenced.

The rumor of difficulty between Gen. Rodó and the other members of the Government is not sending more troops to the frontier. The Minister of War said he was an officer in the Confederate army. The springs have a capacity of 2,000 gallons a minute and are used for the most part of its irrigation purposes. The Major also built the first street car line in the city.

We paid a visit to two of Monterey's three smelters. This city now has three large smelters, one at San Luis Potosí, were built, or are being built, on account of the passage of the McKinley bill. These four concerns alone represent several million dollars worth of property.

The Government is not sending more troops to the frontier. The Minister of War said he was an officer in the Confederate army.

The exposition of the National School of Arts opens Dec. 1.

For further advices received at the Bureau of the American Republics it is learned that there are now in active operation in Mexico twenty-six coffee estates which employ 1,500 men. In this district there is still a very large number of coffee estates which are cultivated which could easily produce over 2,000,000 pounds of coffee. The cost of production to grow, pick, pulp and sale per pound is readily made at the plantations at 20 cents a pound. The lack of sufficient labor is the chief hindrance to the development. The reports which have been circulated of the total failure of crops in Chiapas are not true. The yield is good, though the field of wheat and corn in several of the districts is less than usual in every respect.

Mr. Bowman has refused to see his wife since her return or to allow her children to come to him. He has been compelled to give up his residence in Chiapas twenty-two years ago.

He has been awaiting the arrival of his wife from Paris, France, where she had gone to study the art of painting.

Mr. Bowman's friends admit having seen her recently.

GAME PROTECTION.

Illinois Sportsmen to Found a State Organization.

MOVEMENT ON FOOT FOR ALL LOCAL CLUBS TO UNITE.

Important Matters to Be Considered at the Coming Meeting of the Fox River and Kankakee River Associations—Steps to be Taken to Secure Proper Legislation—Union of Clubs Proposed.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Dec. 1.—There is a great deal of talk here concerning the formation of a state league for the protection of game. Sportsmen in all parts of the State agree that something of the kind is urgently required, and intend taking advantage of the meeting of the Fox River and Kankakee River Associations, to be held next month, to take the necessary steps.

The Fox River Protective Association has practically accomplished its work. The Illinois River Protective is doing its work, and so is the Terpsichorean Club. The latter is the most active in the state. The members of the last Legislature were invited to go to Washington to help in the work of the state.

The Jacksonville Southerners are building the long looked for foot ball game between the two cities.

The Leelanau and the Bearcat clubs are each concerned about the formation of a state organization.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Danner died yesterday morning of throat trouble.

The Leelanau Farmers' United Insurance Co. will hold a meeting at the Hotel Webster on Nov. 20, to discuss the election of officers and the transaction of other business.

Mr. Harry Nichols of Washington, D. C., is visiting the city.

John Kelly, president of the Fox River Protective, is in St. Louis attending the Bishop Concilium.

WILL BE BUT EIGHT.

The Association Will Not Have a Ten Club Circuit.

PRESIDENT VON DER AHE SAYS ONE CLUB WILL BE DROPPED.

He Will Name the Club—The St. Louis Magnate Still Opposed to Consolidation With the League—Defeat of the Black Pearl—South Side Park Booming—Sporting News.

President Von der Ahe returned home this morning from Columbus, where he went to attend a meeting of the committee having in charge the arrangement of the American Association circuit for 1892.

"The Association at present have nine clubs," said President Von der Ahe, "and when we are ready for business next summer we will have ten clubs. Some of our members decided to look over the ground carefully before determining upon the matter, and it will be some little time before the circuit will be settled."

"Will it be Columbus?"

"This is not yet positively decided. The Columbus people are inclined to come in, and it may be so. The committee will use all their influence in advocating Columbus' retirement. There is one thing that was strongly decided, and that was the position of the Association on the twelve-club plan scheme. The newspapermen have industriously circulated the report that the Association is a body is unalterably opposed to the scheme. Julian B. Hart, President of the Boston Club, who was reported to have favored consolidation, was reported as expressing his disavowal of the scheme. The newspapermen continue to remain in front of the committee meeting, and he said neither he nor Mr. Prince favored it. He told me plainly that Mr. Prince himself would retire from the club, but that would not affect the future of the club. He said so far as he was concerned, he would not give Soden & Co. the satisfaction of mentioning his name, but he was particularly interested in seeing the American Association continue to remain in front of the club."

What about Philadelphia and Baltimore?

The Wagner brothers are not in favor of the scheme, he said, but they have not yet had time to consider it. They are not far from the truth, however, in their statement that the Wagner brothers will practically have Philadelphia to themselves next season. The Wagners are not in favor of giving up a good portion of their stock and having shouldered upon them new responsibilities which they do not care to shoulder. As far as they are, they can avoid it. It would be a union which would be disastrous because of the enormous size of the two clubs. Moreover, Mr. Von der Ahe is satisfied to let well enough alone.

"How do you stand?"

"As solid as a rock. The people there want no consolidation, as they too have the best of the situation. The people there will be able to nationalize popular prices, and they will be able to see Sunday games also. President Williams stated at the meeting, that the sporting men there had more money to buy them and that his club was not for sale."

INFANT BAPTISM.

Lexington's Churches Divided on the Matter—Religious News.

President Phelps of the American Association stated in Lexington yesterday that it was agreed that it was settled by the Circuit Committee of that organization to report an American Association club in Kentucky next season. He refused to state where the tenth club would be located. It is to be located in either Louisville, New York or Buffalo will be chosen.

The removal of Taylor and Jennings, the two Louisville players who have, it is reported, been offered to the New York team, has caused, as was expected, a sensation in Louisville. President Phelps of the Association, contacted by the press, said that a deliberate case of contract jumping. A number of the faithful are still in doubt and waiting to hear from Manager Chapman, who is investigating the affair.

THE TURF.

A splendid meet was in progress at the south side track yesterday, and notwithstanding the cold weather which was accompanied by a gale force which blew continuously throughout the afternoon, the races were well worth witnessing. Dan, who made such a good showing last Saturday, was unable to repeat his success in this race, but surprised everybody by his good show.

He was not prominent in the race from the get-to, however, and in this event the talent pulled out remarkably well. The summaries of the day were as follows:

First race, purse, six furloins—Franklin, 1-20; second race, purse, six furloins—Warren, 1-20; third race, purse, five furloins—Helle M., 1-20; fourth race, purse, five furloins—Belle M., 1-20; fifth race, purse, four furloins—George Brown, 1-20; sixth race, purse, four furloins—Hed's Pe., 1-20; seventh race, purse, four furloins—John D. Sullivan, second; Minnie Walker, third; Pe., 1-20.

AT GUTTENBERG.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The races at the Guttenberg track yesterday were in progress at the south side track yesterday, and notwithstanding the cold weather which was accompanied by a gale force which blew continuously throughout the afternoon, the races were well worth witnessing. Dan, who made such a good showing last Saturday, was unable to repeat his success in this race, but surprised everybody by his good show.

A Settlement Reached.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—A meeting of the directors of the Standard Gas Light Co. was held yesterday afternoon in order to attempt a settlement between them and Wallach C. Andrews, the former president of the company. It was reported that matters had been amicably adjusted by Mr. Andrews paying him $10,000, and that he would withdraw from the management of the company.

THE SANDOVAL CONSPIRACY.

One of the institutions of the Martin meetings is a "cure box," in which any one so disposed can deposit his sick and infirm to make a satisfactory explanation. Rev. Carpenter, the pastor of West Virginia, having general knowledge of the secret, has asked through the "Query Box" what was the secret of the "cure box." He was told that it was impossible for him to tell exactly, but he presumed it would be the second verse of the 10th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, which expresses command to baptize infants by sprinkling. The first verse, he said, gave the command to baptize infants, and he was quite a hurry among the people at this as they turned the leaves of their Bibles to find the command, so that they will probably be unable to find it. He will, however, make his report to-day's meeting of the club, and the management say they will probably accept his report and make a public announcement of the secret.

THE GRAIN EMBARGO.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The answer started Mrs. Bennett, 40 years old and quite stout. The answer started Miss Bennett, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, who became afflicted with a spinal trouble, which finally deprived her of the use of her legs, so that she could not walk without the aid of crutches. At times she was confined to bed. Three days ago she visited a friend, a Miss Weston, who had a room in a house without the aid of crutches. The following evening while there she had her leg full of pictures and photographs which she was unable to get out of the room.

She was doing this site surprised Mrs. Weston in calling out to her to come and sit down. She was told that she was going to sit down. Her actions and tone informed Mrs. Weston, who said:

"I don't want my crutches," replied Miss Bennett. "I feel that I can walk without them."

At times she was confined to bed. Three days ago she visited a friend, a Miss Weston, who had a room in a house without the aid of crutches. The following evening while there she had her leg full of pictures and photographs which she was unable to get out of the room.

She was doing this site surprised Mrs. Weston in calling out to her to come and sit down. She was told that she was going to sit down. Her actions and tone informed Mrs. Weston, who said:

"I don't want my crutches," replied Miss Bennett. "I feel that I can walk without them."

Mrs. Bennett is about 40 years old and quite stout. The answer started Mrs. Bennett, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, who became afflicted with a spinal trouble, which finally deprived her of the use of her legs, so that she could not walk without the aid of crutches.
